Dear Parents, Welcome to this week's news.....

What an amazing week we have had!! If you were fortunate enough to have attended one (or more) of our Christmas performances, we are sure that you will agree - the children were absolute stars. Retelling the story of the 1914 truce and singing in German was quite a challenge—but the children rose to it ;there are definitely some future actors amongst our KS2 pupils.

The magic of the Nativity 'Whoops A Daisy Angel' was captured to perfection by our youngest children who also did us proud. Baby Jesus was welcomed into the world in a truly memorable fashion- we hope you took many precious photographs.

Christmas Dinner

For the second year running, over one hundred children, staff and visitors were served Christmas dinner simultaneously. Everyone wore their Christmas attire with pride and plenty of bad jokes were told! The atmosphere was incredible and the food was even more so. Many thanks to all the kitchen staff and other adults who worked as a team to make this happen.
