

Problem solving at its best!

Our Year Three and Four class stepped up to the challenge this November undertaking a morning of maths problem solving.

They encountered a range of open-ended investigative questions that they needed to use their mathematical knowledge and teamwork to overcome them.

They were able to explain and apply their skills and completed most of the challenges confidently.

designed by free